THE ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT.—The entertainment last night, at Armory Hal . for the benefit of the Alexandria Infirmary. under the management of Mr. Robert C. Lee, was a decided success, taking rank among the best amateur performances ever given in this city. The young ladies and centlemen taking the various parts in the programme were rewarded by the large and appreciative audience in attendance with frequent applause. Box and Cox was first resented, with G. G. Brent as "Pox," E. Janney as "Cox," and Miss Minnie Gibson as "Mrs. Bouncer," "Horatius at the Master Frankie Gibson, son of Dr. William ner that would have done credit to a profestonal gender. So remarkable was the recitation that the little orator was compelled by the continued applause to make cappearance again, when he recited a comic pleas, in an amusing style. "Curfew shall not Ring To-night," was then given by Miss Pinkie Lyons with a clearness and beauty, accompanied by a grace of action, that thrilled the audience, and gave the old poem an couplasis that none of the many who have visited this city have clied, and few have equalled. The improve concluded with "Toodles, which was excellently rendered, by the folowing young ladies and gentlemen: Misses Ladie and Parkie Lyons, and Messrs. Willie Lee Moore, R. E. Janney, G. G. Brent, Seddon Taliarerro, Ed. Marye, Willie Cot a and Frank English. Many requests basing been made for a repetition of the entertainment, the managers have under consideration the advisability of presenting two new plays at an early date for the benefit of the same charitable object.

Mayor this morning George Brooks, white, arrested on suspicion of setting fire to the house on Franklin street ; John Randolph, charged with cutting and destroying a riding saddle belonging to Mr. S. F. Beach; and two of the Hall boys charged by Jerry Foley, with threatening his life. In the course of the hearing in the case of George Brooks it was revealed that the accused was living with Lizzie Ward and Mary Compton, two of the witnesses, contrary to law. The charge against Brooks for incendiarism was not sustained, but he and the women named were locked up for living in babitual lewdness. The three were, however, soon released. Brooks stating that of the two women he preferred Mary Compton, and would marry her after

John Randolph was discharged, there being no evidence against him. The Hall boys were put under bonds of

CELEBRATING AN OLD LADY'S BIRTHDAY. Mrs. Rosa Vaccari, an esteemed lady, who vesterday attained the 86th year of her age, was visited last night at the residence of her nephew, Mr. R. M. Lathum, on friends, old and young. The company was provided with a bountiful supply of refreshments which indicated that a good time was intended. The house was turned over to the party, and a most enjoyable time was had, Mrs. Vaccari, in whose honor the merry party had assembled, taking a prominent part in the pleasures of the evening. Although eighty-six years of age, Mrs. Vaccari is in good health and remarkably active. Her many friends throughout the city unite with those who assembled last night to do her honor in wishing that

THE FIRE THIS MORNING .- The alarm of by the discovery of flames issuing from a sioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids. tow of three frame houses on Franklin st., between St. Asaph and Washington. The Fire Department responded to the call, and succeeded in extinguishing the flames be-fore much damage was caused. One of the houses, in which the fire originated, was unoccupied. The other two were occupied by colored families. John A. Scaton, colored, owned the property, which was insured in the Watertown Insurance Company, of New York, of which Messrs. S. H. Janney & Son, are the agents in this city. About $150 will cover the loss.

Women on FIRE.-On Sunday last the woods near the Theological Seminary, a hort distance from this city, were discovered to be on tire and a large number of men lument out to extinguish the flames, which they did not succeed in doing-the wind, at the time being high—until a good deal of damage was done. The fire extended from the Seminary to Cloud's Mill, burning every-quantity, at lowest prices, at 88 King, corner of Royal street, Alexandria, Va. thing in its path, destroying a large quantity of wood and fencing. It is believed that the fire, which was finally gotten under control was the work of some malicious person.

DEATH OF AN AGED LADY.-Mrs. Ellen Cook, a well known and respected lady, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Ward, on Queen street, at 12 o'clock to-day, at the advanced age of 89 cars. The deceased has been a consistent member of the M. E.

The alarm of fire about four o'clock this afternoon was caused by the burning of the 100f of a dwelling house on Cameron street, between St. Asaph and Pitt, belonging to Mrs. Chatham. Damage slight.
